Conditions as modified

1. The endowment which was accepted by the Senate at the meeting held on the 11th July 1927, consists of a sum of Rs. 5,000 invested in the 6¼ per cent Mysore State Loan. The interest thereon will be utilised every year for the award of four scholarships, each of Rs. 7-13-0 a month for 10 months from the beginning of the academical year, to poor Hebbar Srivaishanava Brahmin students prosecuting their studies in the College of Engineering, Bangalore, as detailed below, one in the 3rd year and one in the 4th year of the B.E. Classes (Civil Branch); one in the 4th year class (Mechanical Branch); one in the 4th year class (Electrical Branch).

2. The continuance of the scholarship in the 4th year class to the holder thereof in the 3rd year class will depend upon his satisfactory work and conduct in the latter class. In awarding the scholarship to the 3rd year student, poverty will be the sole ground, but in the award thereof to the 4th year student both poverty and competency will be taken into consideration.

3. In case of want of students coming under any of the categories specified in condition 2 above the Engineering College Council will have power to award the scholarships, so failing, to any poor and deserving Hebbar Srivaishnava Brahmin Students in the college in any of the 3 Branches, Civil, Mechanical and Electrical, students in the higher class being always preferred to those in the lower one.

4. If, in any year, the scholarships are not awarded for want of students, as contemplated in conditions 1 and 3 above, the unspent amount will be disposed of by the University Council by grant of scholarships or prizes to poor and deserving Brahmin students in any of the colleges in the Mysore State. Hebbar Srivaishnava Brahmins being always preferred.

5. In the event of the present investment being changed and the annual interest accruing therefrom being less, the value of the scholarship may, if that deficiency is not supplied by the members of the donor's family, be proportionately reduced by the University Council.

(3) In clause 8 of the conditions on page 221, omit the second sentence occurring in lines 2 to 4.

Conditions as modified.

These scholarships and medals were founded by Dharmapravritha Pandit Navinam Ramanujacharya, Palace Dharmadhikari, Mysore, for the encouragement of the study of Sanskrit in the Mysore University.

The endowment, which consists of Rs. 30,000 has been accepted by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore in their Proceedings dated the 18th April 1917.

The following are the terms and conditions regarding the utilisation of the interest on the endowment :—

I. (1) The sum of thirty-thousand rupees shall be invested with the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore to be held as a permanent endowment to the University, under the name of "Navinam Ramanujacharya Endowment."

(2) The interest at 5 per cent per annum accruing thereon shall be utilised for the award of scholarships and medals as detailed below :—

(3) One scholarship* of Rs. 240 a year shall be given every year to a student for the B.A., course of the Mysore University, and continued for three years or such shorter period as may be required to enable him to obtain the degree.

(4) Two scholarships* of Rs. 240 each a year to be awarded to two students for the M.A. Degree Course, tenable for two years. These will be awarded every alternate year unless there happen to be vacancies.

(5) The scholarships shall be given as general rule alternately to the Central and Maharaja's Colleges.

(6) Scholarships shall be given only to Brahmana students. Those who have other means of their own shall be ineligible.

(7) The selection should be made according to the results of the previous University or other public examination qualifying the candidate to enter on the proposed course of study. Those who have passed in the examination in Sanskrit as one of the subjects and propose to continue their course in it as an optional subject or as a second language, will be eligible, provided they have obtained not less than 50 per cent of the total marks ; and the highest in rank will be selected. If no such candidates are available, the best of the candidates will be given the scholarships for such study as may be approved by the Committee.

(8) The candidates for the M.A. scholarships must take up Sanskrit or Kannada and Sanskrit for the M.A. Degree.
